TOWN SCHOOL SURVEY COMMITTEE REPORT READY FOR VOTERS

To the Bethel Selectmen and Townpeople:

Your School Survey Committee has now issued its full report which is now being sent to all voters, parents and other interested citizens.

The Committee has met for fourteen full sessions. Besides this, many special sub-committees and individuals have spent several days in visits, travel and conferences. This has meant much time and some expense to many members. All has been done with a friendly spirit of co-operation and earnest consideration of what is best for our children and community.

The new building recommendations are broad and not intended to be as definite as the actual Building Committee and School Committee will decide. However, enough particular plans and specifications are necessary to give intelligent recommendations were considered, for which we are indebted to Don Morrill.

The whole-hearted co-operation of Gould Academy throughout culminated in its exceedingly liberal offer to purchase the Grammar School, which made possible the construction of a proper building.

The report in all its comprehensiveness speaks for itself. We strongly feel the Town will never have a better opportunity to realize the fulfillment of its absolute need of more adequate school facilities, both for now and the immediate future.

Respectfully submitted,
Elmer E. Bennett
Chairman

MRS. FRED L. CLARK

Mrs. Mary Ella Clark, wife of Fred L. Clark, passed away Thursday, Jan. 26, at her home in Bethel following a long illness. She was born in Bethel March 11, 1873, the daughter of John and Amanda Farwell Kendall and has always lived in her native town, where she received her education in the public schools and Gould Academy.

About three weeks ago she returned to her home from Rumford, where she spent a month in the hospital and two months with a niece, Mrs. Emily Forbes, who faithfully cared for her like a devoted daughter.

Fifty-nine years ago she was united in marriage with Fred L. Clark of Bethel and two boys were born of this union, one who died in infancy and Albert F. Clark who survives.

These 59 years, Mr. and Mrs. Clark have spent together, have been filled with peace and contentment. During her long illness the first and last thought of this devoted husband was for the comfort of his dear companion, whom he will sadly miss.

Mrs. Clark was of a quiet unassuming manner, her real purpose in life, loyalty to her church and community, and her many deeds of kindness have gained the love of those who knew her. She was a kind neighbor, a devoted wife and mother, one who never spoke of anyone.

Mrs. Clark was a member of the Methodist Church since girlhood, and a devout Christian woman. She was a member of the Ladies Aid as long as health permitted, an honorary member of Bear River Grange, and for many years a member of the S. U. V. Auxillary.

Mrs. Clark is survived by her husband, Fred L. Clark; one son, Albert F. Clark, of Melrose, Mass.; three grandchildren, two living at Melrose and Walter of Bethel; besides two great grandchildren living in Melrose.

Funeral services were held from Greenleaf's funeral home Sunday at 2 p. m. with Rev. F. Ernest Smith officiating. Those present from out of town were: Albert F. Clark, Melrose, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. David Forbes, Rumford; Mrs. Walter Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith, Oxford; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Berquist, Berlin, N. H., and Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Berquist, Milan, N. H.

MRS. LAUREN LORD

Mrs. Lord was married Nov. 23, 1925, and Mr. Lord died July 30, 1945. She was a member of Evergreen Rebekah Lodge, North Waterford.

Facts—Our Priceless Weapon

When a certain early 17th century church indoctrinated its clergymen for mission assignments, the process was called "propaganda." In the hands of the Nazis, Fascists and Communists 300 years later, propaganda became something unwholesome only because it practiced distortion of the truth and quite often, outright lying. Our American "counter propaganda" set up to meet and conquer the flood of subversives from Moscow, can be of no real value unless it is kept absolutely truthful.

Uncle Sam's efforts to counteract the Moscow-manufactured propaganda is largely a job of federal agencies. But there is another battle for men's minds close at hand: top one is to ate the political-social planners and their huddled camp followers who wish to make citizens indifferent to the State. Naturally they never admit it. On the other side are those who have recognized that the various phases of the Communists' planned economy would require giving up our personal freedom.

On the Job

Until recent years the Communists had the field almost to themselves and were making steady headway persuading our people we should adopt their socialist proposals making the cities more and more the focus of most of his government. Increasing millions of Americans now are getting wise to the fatal dangers of such a course. The best job I've observed in American "propaganda" is a particular fight to bring them today to a large section of industry.

Our industrial leaders have been the No. 1 target of both the Communists and Socialist propagandists. For years nobody called attention to the half-truths or falsehoods the out-and-out communists used to make many workers confused. In fact an official strategy of the Socialists is to spread confusion. The Communists against them to teach facts. Facts consist of the socialist theories. Facts consist of the socialist theories.

Proof Wanted

Many companies now have well-organized plant educational programs on the American way of life and free enterprise economics. It is encouraging that most programs are conducted with the support and frequently the active help of church groups, business and other community officers. The secret of their success is that the facts are stated with much painstaking care, thus their withstand the vicious attack of the wounded Communists and their duped followers.

An official of one big industry which now has a well-established Americanism program tells me that early in the company's program a few workers spoke up with the attitude "you know" "you know that" "you know what's best."

He said that at first he and his associates had difficulty getting to get the proof but that when they produced it and had explained the logically-based program the "sheepish" became extremely "students."

A Challenge

It is a healthy thing in these days for open-minded people to be a little suspicious of just anybody's information and to want to see some evidence. There is no such satisfaction being distributed over justified and reasonably so some questions always are expected. We might all take our cue from Missouri's great stateoyer, "Show me."

Yes in these days of ideological and political boasting I should say the above challenge any informed American or international and backed by facts as readily accepted logic. On that note our American system stands here for us.

Learn To Endure Affliction

NEARLY TWO YEARS ago Mello P. Sampao, a director of the National Import company, San Paulo, Brazil, was stricken with Landry's paralysis, which spread so rapidly that within three weeks he was left in such a state that he could move no part of his body except his head. Almost by a miracle his life was spared. He was so despondent that he hoped death would follow; he wanted to kill himself, but this wasn't possible since he couldn't even move his arms to cause such tragic end.

His wife and his friends devoted themselves to him, cheerfully, hopefully. The latest medical discoveries were applied. Gradually he improved a little. At the end of four months, he could move his arms, and his breathing muscles and torso were improved. Now he began to experience faint hope. He concentrated on gymnastics, massages, and the doctors' orders, though the most he could hope for was to be a paraplegic the rest of his life.

Then he began reading, and he derived strength from a sentence of John Milton, who was blind: "It is not miserable to be blind, it is only miserable not to be able to endure blindness." Next he read something in a book that gave him hope in suggesting that he live for the day only. That helped wonderfully, for he found he could get something out of each day.

Then he asked himself what was the worst thing about being a permanent paraplegic. Well, the worst thing would be a negative attitude toward it, thus making others suffer with him. He could do something about that. His thoughts began to clear, worry and fear decreased.

From that time on, his physical improvement became very noticeable; his mental attitude became more and more hopeful. Today definitely Mr. Sampao is in a position to carry on in work which interests him. His wife and friends think he is like a different man from the one they started working with a year and a half ago, when the doctors were almost ready to give him up.

BEFORE APPLYING FURNITURE polish with a cloth, wet the cloth thoroughly with water and wring out until it is left just damp. The fibers of the cloth absorb less of the polish and do a better polishing job.

For cleaning bric-a-brac, book-tops, baseboards and other such hard-to-clean corners, an ordinary two-inch paint brush is the ideal tool.

Brooms will give better service if they are kept clean. Whisk them through warm, soapy water, then rinse well. Hang them to dry so they do not rub against a wall while doing so.

1/4 teaspoon cayenne
1 cup water

Cut veal into eight pieces. Place in a covered casserole. Combine remaining ingredients in a sauce pan; bring to a boil and pour over meat. Cover and bake in a moderately hot (375°) oven for 1 1/4 hours. Uncover and bake for 1/2 hour longer, turning twice during this period.

proportion for a cleaning solution for linoleum-covered floors. The floors should be rinsed, waxed and polished after the soapy cleaning.

Plaster of Paris articles, when they become soiled, yield readily to cleaning if they are covered with wet starch. Let dry, then brush off the starch. Dirt goes along with the starch.

If window glass gets paint on it, rub with a cloth. Quarters or half dollars are a convenient size to use.

Waxed, artificial flowers may be cleaned by dipping several times in cleaning fluid set in a bowl, away from fire or flame.

When you add blueing to water to which glassware is washed, the glasses attain brilliance and luster.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By
Mrs. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor,
Parents Magazine

DO YOU REVEAL too much about your children to friends and neighbors? Nowadays when practically everyone has read a book or two on psychology the temptation to explain our children is stronger than ever. But boys and girls need to be protected from public discussion of their personality adjustments as much as they need privacy for their emotions.

For example, take a boy who has a violent temper. His father, having experienced something of the same struggle, knows the importance of gaining control of anger. He works to help his son overcome this character defect by explaining what it will mean in his adult years to have a temper that hurts even those you love. And he stands by during violent storms with stern appeals to the boy's better nature. But his mother, who can't believe that this furious human being is her son, explains to all and sundry that Tim inherited his temper from his paternal grandfather. Thinking to excuse her son, she is really violating his right to work out his problems in secret.

"I can't put sweaters and skirts on Jane—she is just too fat," may be merely a lament on mother's part because she likes to knit and regrets having a daughter who can't wear her handiwork. But Jane, long after she loses her excess weight, will carry a mental picture of herself as an ungainly child.

Then there are those forgetful parents who sign to their friends over the fact that John or Margaret is difficult because he or she is "going through" adolescence. If ever a young person needs to feel that the turmoil inside him is his private affair it is during the changes of late puberty. These same parents are probably hurt because their troubled youngsters don't confide in them as they did.

Perhaps if children knew that character is something we have to work on all our lives, they wouldn't feel so much on the spot. Why not confide in them that you are having trouble with a few rough spots in your own habits of thought or action, and that you may be able to help each other? But keep it a family affair! Jimmy won't tell his friends about your weaknesses, so why should you publicize it?

HAVE A LAUGH, CHAPS . . . It is carnival time in the south of France, playground of the wealthy, with parades and pageants in order. Some had the bright idea of sending some of the carnival spirit to fog-bound England. So nice they loaded this big figure into a seaplane for flight to England. No, we don't know if it dispelled the fog—or the austerity. It might have dispelled the citizens. If they didn't know it was coming—from the looks of the face.

The Very Common Cold

Common Sense Still Best Defense Against the Common Cold

As the nation settles down this week to its annual mid-winter bout with the common cold, many a chronic victim is wondering what,
if anything, has been accomplished
in the field of medical research that promises relief from the discomfort and expense that follow in the wake of the cold.

Aside from taking part in the present mass testing of these new
drugs, the best thing the chronic
victim can do to avoid the misery
of a cold is to try to avoid the cold germ in the first place. That is much easier said than done, but there are several common-sense rules that may help. Those which have won general acceptance among medical authorities are:

1. Stay away from people who already have colds, particularly if they are coughing or sneezing.

2. Keep bodily resistance high by eating proper foods and getting plenty of fresh air, exercise and sleep.

3. Avoid chilling by keeping out of drafts and dressing according to the weather—wearing warm clothes in cold weather and rubbers or overshoes when it rains or snows.

For those who catch cold in spite of these precautions, the advice is equally simple. Stay in bed until the worst of the cold is over. Eat light meals, and drink plenty of liquids. If fever, pain or a rattling cough lasts more than 24 hours, call the doctor.

So far, the country's leading medical spokesmen have declined to give the anti-histamines their unqualified endorsement. They know the drugs cause certain
"side-effects," such as drowsiness
and disturbances in appetite,

among allergy victims who take them on prescription, much smaller doses recommended by the manufacturers of anti-histamines now on sale in drug stores, but doctors realize a large proportion of the users will tend to overdose in an effort to break up their colds quickly and,
as a result, may be subject to these side-effects.

Aside from taking part in the
present mass testing of these new
drugs, the best thing the chronic
victim can do to avoid the misery
of a cold is to try to avoid the
cold germ in the first place. That

The Citizen is supposed to know everything that goes on for miles around and to publish it promptly for the edification of both regular subscribers and regular borrowers—a cross between an oracle
and a neighborhood gossip group.

But we here at the Citizen are very busily engaged in the labor incidental to getting your family newspaper to you on time and supplying the wants of those who require the printer's aids to modern business, a situation which keeps our facilities in fairly constant use and personnel reasonably active.

Our staff, local and suburban, hustles
around for much of the news but a lot goes on in Bethel and vicinity of which we must be told. We visit the post office regularly and there is a crack under our front door in which communications may be inserted. And then, the telephone.
Call up, outline your story and our rewrite department will carry on from there.

A neighborhood newspaper is a cooperative proposition and we solicit a little help from everyone interested in a readable, informative, friendly, family newspaper.

Incidentally, The Citizen advertising columns have been proven to be a productive medium for both buyer and seller and our job printing department is one of the best in western Maine. The facilities of both are at your disposal
and at surprisingly low rates.

Favorite Peanut Butter Cookies

Press balls of peanut butter cookie dough with tines of a fork to get the popular design for peanut butter cookies. Top each with peanut before baking.

One of the best-liked cookies for everyday service is the peanut butter cookie. Its pleasant flavor goes so well with a simple glass of milk, or cocoa, and with fruit sauces, sherbets and ice creams, too. Most of the youngsters eat all the peanut butter cookies they want, for they'll be getting a generous supply of essential B-vitamins both in the enriched flour and peanut butter.

Peanut butter cookies are made much like a conventional-mix cake, so they have exceptional tenderness. You will find the soft dough easier to shape into balls if you chill it a few minutes. Bake cookies only until lightly browned, and be prepared to hand out samples to the family as soon as they come from the oven.

PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES

|--------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 ½ cups sifted enriched flour | 1 ½ cup peanut butter |
| 1 teaspoon soda | ½ cup brown sugar |
| ½ teaspoon salt | ½ cup white sugar |
| ½ cup shortening | 1 cup beaten |

Sift together flour, soda and salt. Blend together shortening and peanut butter. Add sugar and cream until light and fluffy. Add egg and vanilla extract. Mix well. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture and mix well. Chill. Form dough into small balls the size of marbles. Place on greased cookie sheet about one inch apart. Press crosswise over the top. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 40 cookies about two inches in diameter.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"My Wife Never Forgets Me On My Birthday!"

I REMEMBER...

by THE OLD-TIMERES.

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chilcage: "I remember when ladies took great pride in their luxuriant, long hair. Families with grown daughters made a ritual of the shampoo; it was washed fortnightly, usually with a change in the moon, then the ends were singed, an oil was rubbed thoroughly into the scalp, rain water had been saved and strained for use with tar soap for dark hair and castile for light. Then it was carefully dried and vigorously brushed out in the sun. In spite of all this, some beauties still looked frumpy."

From Gardner Campbell of Wakefield, Mass.: "I remember when a committee of local women pro-hosted a display of women's under wear in the window of the Worcester dry goods store to our amazement."

From H. J. Phillips of New York: "The Gardner Campbell: "In reference to your contribution to 'I Remember...' relating when Lydia Putnam's camp and Hold's newspaper were about the only two paper adventures to be in the newspaper, do you know that H. W. and Lydia Putnam's sons put a top ad in the first page of a Boston newspaper that her famous remedy became one of the greatest newspaper adventures in history? Not a $20,000 ad as for years we placed $20,000 back into advertising. Proving as nothing pays."

How about your memories of days gone by, old-timers? Send yours today in care of Mr. Franklin, Box 346, Franklin, Ky. 42134.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Official poster marking the 40th birthday.

The 40th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America will be observed Feb. 8 to 12 in every part of the nation by more than 2,300,000 boys and adult leaders. "Strengthen Liberty" is the birthday theme. The Boy Scouts' "Crusade to Strengthen the Arm of Liberty" continues through 1950.

During Boy Scout Week, Units will hold "Crusade Night" meetings when 1949 Crusade Awards will be presented. Representing the 12 Scout Regions, 12 outstanding Boy Scouts will make a "Report to the Nation" at Washington, D.C., where the Movement was incorporated Feb. 8, 1910. They will also take part in an impressive ceremony at Independence Hall in Philadelphia.

The highlight of 1950 will be the Second National Jamboree which will see 40,000 Scouts and Leaders camping together at Valley Forge, Pa., from June 30 to July 6, including Scouts of other lands.

Since 1910 more than 16,500,000 boys and men have been identified with the Boy Scouts of America.

Jan. 23, the girls and boys basketball teams beat Casco to take their fifth straight doubleheader.

The girls took their game by ten points making up for the loss they had suffered at Casco earlier this year. The final score was 35-25. In the boys game, Casco couldn't seem to find the basket and our boys easily ran them down for a 38-19 victory.

Do You Want To Cut Your Federal Taxes?

Slash Government Cost

If your personal or business expenses go up and your income and efficiency come down this year at the same rate as that of the Federal Government, you will be in the hands of the sheriff at an early date.

Workers, farmers, and businessmen from Maine to California know this. The answer is in the Report of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government. This twelve-man, bi-partisan Commission was unanimously created by Congress with the approval of the President. At the suggestion of Mr. Truman, former President Hoover was made its Chairman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Vice Chairman. The late president Franklin D. Roosevelt long had advocated such reorganization of the government.

There is a two-fold purpose behind the effort to reorganize the Executive Branch of the Government: One—the elimination of inefficiency caused by overlapping and duplication; two—this should lead to a reduction of your taxes. If our Government can save from three to four billion dollars year by more efficient methods of conducting our business, failure to act is stupid short-sightedness.

Action, however, depends upon the President and Congress. The President has already submitted a number of reorganization recommendations. The Congress has adopted several of these, most important having to do with the Headquarters of the armed forces, which save the taxpayer more than $100,000,000 a year. But there are only first steps. There will be more ahead if Congress is made to realize Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer want more tax cuts and more. Congressmen and Senators will vote for just so many of the Commission's recommendations when they demand

"What can you do as an individual, about it?" The answer is to write your Congressman and Senator. Tell them you want the recommendations of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government made the law of the land. Join the bi-partisan Citizens Committee set up to obtain the necessary action to make the Commission's report work. Write to the Citizens Committee for Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1421 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, for more information about the Commission's Report. Tell your neighbor. Write about it. Make speeches. Make your representatives in Washington act now!

Nobody's Business

The report of the school survey committee, which will be in the hands of all the voters this week, is deserving of serious study and consideration. It represents much work by the committee, and more by Superintendent Donald Christie, who for the past two years has compiled information and statistics on the needs of the town in the next years. The future of the town's schools must be decided next month. Improvement and expansion of facilities is imperative. So please give it your consideration. It's everybody's business. That's all.
